September Club Highlights

Lion Marty Carlin regaled us with stories about his trip this past summer to Germany, Russia, Denmark and Sweden.

(Lower left) Lion Amy Dixon and her service dog Lion Elvis visited our club on Sept 27th. Lion Amy is a Sommelier and made an excellent presentation on wine tasting and enjoyment.

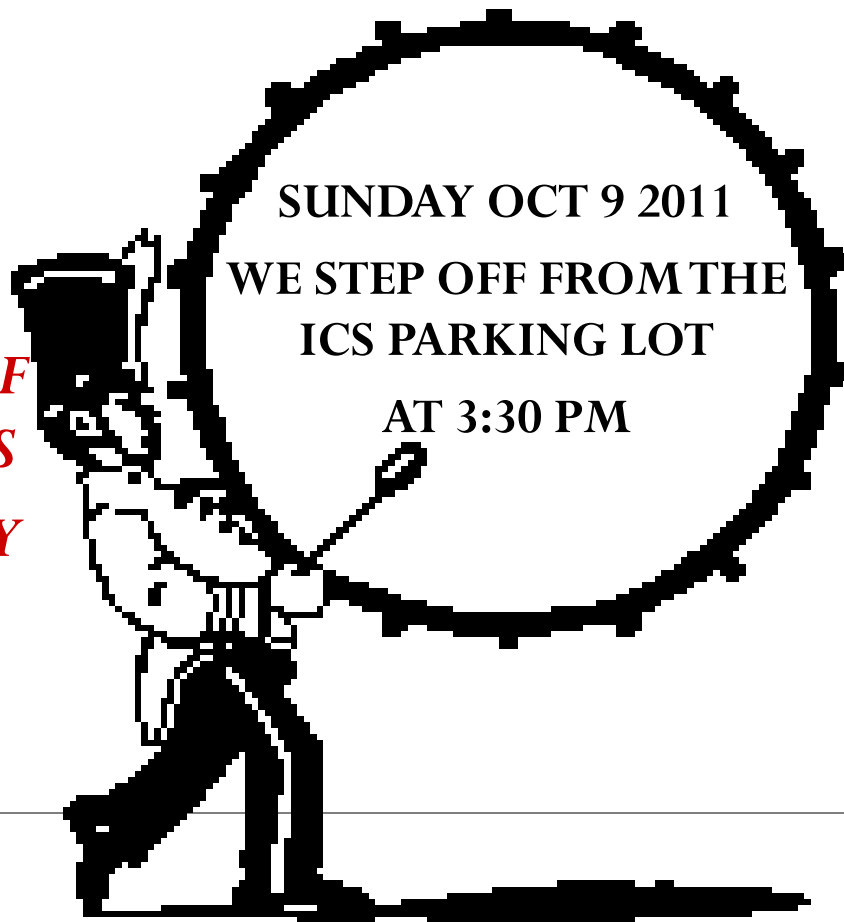

We were honored to have also in attendance that night Lions from the Annie Sullivan Lions Club and 2nd Vice District Governor Lion Maria Sierra (lower right).

Please bring old coats and winter wear to our future meetings
They will be collected and distributed to the needy

December 13th at 6:30pm

Westchester Manor, Hastings-on-Hudson

Coming Sunday, October 16... A graduate sommelier, Italian wines, and puppies!

Register now for a wine tasting like no other, led by Guiding Eyes graduate Amy Dixon. Amy will lead you on an exploration of the senses as you sample seven special wines from Italy's Piedmont region chosen by Zachys Wine & Liquor of Scarsdale, the region's premier wine purveyor.

Before the tasting, take the opportunity to explore our facility and meet Guiding Eyes staff and volunteers. You'll learn how guide dogs are trained to help blind and visually impaired people travel safely and independently, and how Heeling Autism service dogs are changing the lives of local families. And of course – puppy cuddling is always encouraged.

This is a unique way to support Guiding Eyes and learn about wine from a true master. The event is sure to sell-out; reserve your seats now! Contact Nancy Lothrop at 914 243 2211 or nlothrop@guidingeyes.org.
